

Today i.e. 21/9/2023 at about 3:20 pm, a mob numbering about 1700 persons comprising men and women folk stormed the Irilbung Police Station. The mob demanded immediate release of the five persons earlier arrested by police on 16/09/2023 without any condition. In spite of repeated warning the mob became wild and started pelting stones and shooting catapult to the building and vehicles of the PS. The mob was given a warning to stop pelting stones and catapult. The unruly mob uses deadly weapons like iron rod, sticks etc. However the mob becomes more and more aggressive. The Duty Magistrate ordered dispersal of the mob and to fire tear gas if the mob did not disperse within 10 minutes but the mob continued pelting stones towards the Government vehicles, police personnel cars and CAPF Buses and other vehicles. Accordingly, the Police personnel including CAPF personnel inside the Irilbung Police Station confronted with the mob and resorted to tear gas firing. As it became ineffective, the live rounds were also fired in the air to disperse the mob. The mob destroyed and burnt down the sentry post of the PS and sign board of Irilbung PS which is located/erected in front of the PS main gate. Owing to pelting stones and shooting of catapult by the mob from outside the PS wall, many vehicles parked inside the PS campus and the window glasses of the office building were badly damaged. Later, the mob was finally dispersed by a combined team of Irilbung Police Station, Special CDO/IE, CAPF personnel including SP-IE led by IGP(Z-I) and DIGP(R-I) by firing tear Gas shells and some live rounds under the direction of Executive Magistrate, Keirao Bitra, Imphal East as last resort.

In this regard, a case under FIR No. 55(9)2023 IBG-PS U/S 147/148/149/186/188/353/427/435/507/34 IPC is registered Suo Motu for investigation.
