RECEIPT NO. 1335

SUBJECT: COMPLAINT/ REPRESENTATION REGARDING PERSONAL AND PROPRIETARY LOSSES CAUSED TO THE UNDERSIGNED AND HIS FAMILY AND OFFENCES COMMITTED AGAINST THEM

Sir,

I, Shri Lenkhothang Gangte, aged about 55 years, son of Shri P Gangte IPS (Retd), Permanent Resident of Pisgah Bhavan, Palace View, Thangapat Mapal, Imphal East, Manipur - 795005 writing this letter from Delhi on this 25th day of May, 2023 for me and on behalf of my family as under:

1. That I along with my family comprising of my father (above named) who is a retired IPS officer and is aged about 89 years, my wife Smt. Rajkumari Urmila Devi aged about 57 years, son Mr Lalpithang Gangte aged about 28 years, and daughter Miss N Angelina Gangte aged about 16 years, were residing at the above mentioned address, which is my ancestral home, since last more than 50 years until, we were compelled to flee from the home, city and even state to Delhi on the 6th day of this month (May), 2023 in order to save our lives.
2. That our above home is situated in the heart of Imphal city, but amongst the majority "Meitei Community." However, you must be aware that since 3rd of May, 2023 communal riots are spreading in the different part of the state. In a premeditated manners the instigated communal riots were led by a group of radicals wherein the targeted killing, murderously injuring, burning of houses and other properties were carried out against group of people just because they belonging to the Kuki community.
3. That on 04/05/2023 at about 10:30 AM, a huge mob attackers belonging to the Meitei community led by a leader of the radical group, assembled outside our main Eastern gate, and forcibly opened both the outer & inner gates to enter into our house campus and began pelting stones, bricks, etc. even as others smashed my car windshield with sticks and bats that was parked on the front lawn, even as the leader, brandishing a small firearm waved at us menacingly threatening to shoot.

4. That my father and I stood firm & confronted them & tried to reason with them but of no avail, for they had predetermined to destroy so came prepared to burn our property, which was evident with the fact that the leader of the group had also brought half litres of petrol bottles that he threw it through the opened front door onto the sofa sets & cushions inside the house. Needless to say, petrol-soaked materials on wooden furniture are tinderboxes, not to mention that the false ceiling, curtains, leather sofas, etc, are ready fuel for fire.
5. That even as we tried to calm down the mob, a brick came flying out of nowhere and hit my father's head on the backside. As he fell down, I grabbed him to break his fall, even as blood was oozing out and had to be stopped immediately and so, rushed to the hospital situated on the southern side of our home campus.
6. That simultaneously, the leader barged inside my house and lit a lighter and threw it onto the petrol-soaked sofa. The fire spread like wildfire, devouring the dried fabric materials like dried leaves. It quickly spread throughout the entire bungalow house and the duplex behind the main house.
7. That they weren't satisfied with the burning of the main house; even as other miscreants began burning the front outhouse, which housed an attached garage where my other Honda Civic sedan was parked inside. This outhouse was also used as store house for exclusive building materials, garden tools, furniture tools and equipment, plumbing materials, false ceiling materials, floor & wall tiles, multiple sanitary items, paint & electrical materials, hardware items, etc. etc. Everything was burnt by them.
8. That we somehow managed to escape with our lives with the help of well-wishers from the major Meitei community unlike the radicals, bent on creating disharmony. It was a staged communal ethnic cleansing barbarism act.
9. That since I and my family have fled from the state and taken refuge in Delhi, back in Imphal the properties which the family have must be protected by the state authorities. These are: SI. No.-C/R-(P) SL. No.291/303 New Patta No.445/645/806 in the name of Nengzoujam Gangte W/o Lenkhorhang Gangte of palace Compound, plot No. of the land under direct possession Sheet No. (26) 5018/5252/(Part) areas 0.10. acre in class Ingkhol, at 38(A) Palace Compound, Unit (B) tehsil Porompat, Sub-Division- Porompat, District Imphal East.
10. That all the family members have suffered grievous hurt & and undergoing treatment at different hospitals in Delhi on which medical documents are being attached. You are requested to ensure re-partition to our place and restoration of the losses caused to the properties to bring them in pre-riots condition.
