This has not only caused financial loss, but also emotional trauma for me and my family and the loss will not be able to recover for the rest of my life. Now I'm left with nothing as I have to run for my life and had a narrow escape from death. This horrible incident has had a profound impact on our lives, and we feel violated and unsafe in our own homes and I hold the authorities responsible for not providing adequate security measures to prevent such gruesome attacks from occurring.

Thanking you in anticipation.
