Subject: Request for taking action against armed militants who came to my house and threaten me in connection with publication of a News item.

Sir

With due respect I have the honour to state that some miscreants armed with sophisticated weapons numbering around 10, came in three four wheeler vehicles and entered my house yesterday evening at around 8.45 pm.

Those heavily armed miscreants forcibly entered my home at around 8:45 p.m. asking for me to talk about a news report published in newspaper 'Imphal Times'. When my family inquires about the purpose of their visits, they informed that they want to talk to me about the news that I published. I am a mere reporter and publishing of news depend on the decision of the editor. I was not present at my home at the time. Those miscreants also threatened my sister who happened to be at my home of facing dire consequences if I failed to come to a specific place in Imphal West district before 10 am of May 10, 2024. They further said that they will tell the place later through phone call.

I, therefore request you to kindly take action against the armed miscreants as it is a challenge to the media freedom and as my life is in danger due to their threat.
