Today, i.e. 27/11/2024 at 7:45 pm, received information that on the same day at about 7:40 pm a mob comprising of men and women, numbering about 500/600, which was instigated and spearheaded by members of Langsai Thouna (a CSO based at Kakching) led by the Convener Kshetrimayum Rajiv Singh (50) S/O Ksh. Chaoba Singh of Kakching Moirangthem Leikai and some student's organization of Kakching gathered at Kakching Paji Leikai by defying curfew orders of District Magistrate, Kakching and were storming to the residence of Hon'ble MLA Kakching A/C in connection with the non-released of four (4) persons who were arrested in connection with FIR NO 80(11)2024 KCG-PS & FIR No. 81(11)2024 KCG-PS.

On receipt of the information, police deployed at the residence was alerted and additional police teams also rushed to the spot and confronted/pacified the mob and prevented them from entering towards the residence of Hon'ble MLA. However, the mob turned violent and tried force entry by manhandling the police teams on duty. But they were pushed back. Later they pelted stones and broke some police vehicles and marched towards Kakching Police Station for causing more violent activities. The unruly mob also beat up some police personnel who were discharging duty at Kakching bazar and two of them were also hospitalized. After the unruly mob reached near the proximity of Kakching police station, the large police teams (including senior police officers) announced using loudspeaker and asked the mob to disperse from the spot peacefully. But the mob paid no attention and constantly shouted and raised various slogans against the police on duty. The mob became more violent and started pelting stones towards the police teams on duty from various directions. The police teams made further announcements to disperse but the mob became more violent and started pelting more stones. As the situation became more violent the police teams had no option but to disperse the mob by firing tear shells/mock bombs with the authorization of the Executive Magistrate present. After hectic efforts the mob was finally dispersed at about 12:40 am of 28/11/2024. Later discovered that V.D.F. No. 1923, N. Shyamsundar Singh of R/L-KCG, and 2) V.D.F. No. 1570, Sh. Alvish Singh MTO-KCG got injuries on their head, chest and back and admitted at EMA Hospital, Kakching.
