Based on the input, a mobile check post was established at Heikakpokpi area, near the Power Sub Station. While checking, the team detained one suspected Eeco van bearing Registration no. AS01FG9338 as per the information. On questioning, the driver of the vehicle identified himself as one Abdur Rahaman (40) s/o Mohd. Ahanbi of Sora Awang Ching Wangma, Kakching district, and on further checking of the vehicle, it was discovered that the fuel tank has been tampered with. So, there was a need for thorough checking, and therefore, the individual was informed and given an option to be checked in the presence of an Executive Magistrate or a Gazetted Officer. The individual opted for the search to be conducted in the presence of the Executive Magistrate. The Executive Magistrate, namely L Ashakumar, SDC, Kakching was requested to be present for the checking. Thereafter, the vehicle fuel tank was dismantled in the presence of the Executive Magistrate, Kakching. On checking the fuel tank, a modified chamber was found. On further checking, detected 12(twelve) numbers of packets which are suspected to be containing WY tablets (wrapped in black polythene) was found concealed in the chamber.

Upon weighing the twelve (12) packets in the presence of the Executive Magistrate, it was found to weigh 13.942 Kg (approx.).
