Subject: Report.

Sir,

I am writing to file a complaint regarding forging of my documents by someone that is unknown to me. On 24th April, 2025, I discovered that someone had used my personal information to fill up Agniveer application from since everytime I fill up the form and enter my contact number, I received a OTP. But everytime I proceed with the application I was met with the message 'Candidate Name, Father's Name, Mother's Name and Date of Birth you have entered is already exist'. However, I don't remember having done so, and haven't receive any email for the application. Therefore, it also means that the person who forge my documents to fill up the application on my behalf also use a different email address. Now, am concerned about the security of my personal information. If the issue is not resolved quickly and the culprit found out, I am afraid it will affect my prospect of government job application in the future.

I have attached the documents containing my personal information. I request your kind office to investigate this matter and take necessary action to reslove the issue.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
