To,

The Officer in Charge,
Churachandpur Police Station,

Subject:- Report against some miscreants who assaulted us badly in an attempt to murder us.

Respected Sir,

With reference to the above cited subject, I would like to report to you that me and my friends in 15 Bikes were going to SIKTUI Farm for a Picnic. That, at around 3:57 PM they were drunk and they challenge us but we do not mind them, but they were in numbers and they beat one of us and we stop them but they don't stop they even beat the one who stop and none of us dare to stop. They kick away our foods that we didn't eat and they took the wood that we used for cooking and hit us with that and they crush our bike with the wood and they even bring the knife to stamp the tyre and with that some of others groups who have come for the picnic for one of their friends farewell; they also went to the extent of questioning their; are you kuki and start threatening them and they kick all away their foods and plates they have. And they chase them all around the campus with numbers of people and they push down all their vehicles and told them to fight with them, but they took their vehicles and run but they stop them in the middle of the campus and told them who took the video, and they snatch away and checked all our mobile phones. Therefore; I urge your good office to take necessary action under relevant sections as reports of such intimidation, threat and attack on youngsters based o their caste, creed and identify has become a daily offense which seriously needs to be overlooked to stop further escalation to disrupt the existing communal harmony and law & Order situations in the District.

Sincerely Yours'
