Respected Sir,

I, the undersigned, Wahengbam Shriman Netaji aged about 40 years s/o late Wahengbam Robin Singh, a resident of Kontha Ahallup Mayai Leikai, P.O Mantripukhri, P.S Heingang, Imphal East District, Manipur, am constrained to lodge the present complaint against Smt.Laithangbam Sophia Devi, Yumnam Romabai and their associates for committing unlawful trespass, physical assault, outraging of modesty, and criminal intimidation upon my family members.

1. That on the said date of 25th may 2025, Smt. Laithangbam Sophia Devi along with her mother, Yumnam Romabai devi and eight (8) other persons including unknown male companions, unlawfully entered my residential premises by forcefully bypassing the main gate, their objective was to forcibly take away my elder son without any legal order or direction from a competent court. That this unlawful intrusion was not an isolated incident. A similar attempt had been made earlier.
2. That on the said date, Laithangbam Sophia, Yumnam Romabai and their associates including unknown male personnels had entered my bed room and forcibly tried to take away my son which is sleeping in the bed.
3. Yumnam Romabai had beaten my mother wahengbam Manbi devi, aged about 82 years old, and laithangbam Sophia devi along with their associated had beaten my sister-in-law kangjam Jina devi aged about 42 years old who is residing in the adjacent house.

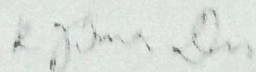

emotional stability. Moreover, I initially refrained from taking legal steps in the hope that the mutual understanding reached at the police station would be honoured. However, in light of the gravity of the incident, particularly the outraging of my modesty and the repeated unlawful behaviour by the Accused Person and her associates, I find it imperative to seek justice through due process of law.

In view of the above grave and unlawful acts, I earnestly request your good office to register a case and initiate appropriate legal proceedings against Smt. Laithangbam Sophia Devi and her associates under the relevant provisions of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (BNS), including but not limited to the offences of criminal trespass, assault, outraging of modesty, and criminal intimidation.

I am ready and willing to cooperate fully with any investigation, and I can furnish the names of eyewitnesses and my medical treatment records in support of this complaint.

Thanking you,

However, rather than de-escalating, the Accused Person and her associates turned hostile. They attacked me with full force. I was pushed to the ground, repeatedly slapped and kicked, and my hair was pulled violently, resulting in visible injury and physical trauma.

More gravely, during this scuffle, Smt. Laithangbam Sophia Devi, her mother, Yumniam Romabai and some of the male members accompanying her also touched me inappropriately. One of them gripped my arms from behind while another pressed against my chest under the guise of restraining me. My clothing was forcibly tugged and partially torn in the process. One of the men accompanying Sophia blatantly threatened to shoot me on the spot if I dared to oppose or act against them ever again. These actions not only caused me humiliation and indignity but also amounted to a serious and willful outraging of my modesty in full public view.

Throughout this incident, I screamed and pleaded for help, and the nearby residents soon arrived and intervened. The matter was brought under control only after Shriman Netaji informed Heingang Police Station, following which police personnel arrived at the scene and brought all involved parties to the police station.

At the station, a temporary understanding was recorded, wherein Laithangbam Sophia Devi agreed not to resort to such illegal means regarding the custody of the child. It was further agreed that both parties would await the outcome of the pending Domestic Violence Case (Criminal Case No. 9 of 2025) filed by the said Sophia Devi before the Ld. Chief Judicial Magistrate, Imphal East.

Despite this, I was compelled to consult a medical practitioner due to the assault. I experienced dizziness, persistent headache, and swelling on the head, and had to undergo a course of prescribed medications and advised rest. The emotional distress I have suffered continues to haunt me.

That the delay in lodging the present complaint is neither accidental nor deliberate. I was physically unwell and mentally distressed due to the trauma of the incident. I had to undergo continuous medical treatment and required time to regain physical and
