12. First Information contents:

On 4/12/2025, reliable information came to the notice of this Police Station regarding the public circulation of threatening statements through social media and other platforms. A Facebook post from the page "Pandam" (screenshot attached) was found wherein a group calling itself G-5 has issued a warning prohibiting Sumang Lila Parties from performing in the ongoing Sangai Festival. The post further threatens that anyone participating, performing, or opening stalls until December 10 will face punitive "action" (sengdoktaba, cheirak piraba, etc.).

In addition to this, a detailed press note and signed letter issued in the name of KCP, KYKL, PREPAK, PREPAK-Pro, and UNLF (G-5) has been observed (copy already submitted). The said document contains extensive threats, coercive statements, calls for boycott, and explicit intimidation directed towards artists, cultural bodies, business stall owners, civil society organisations, general public participants, and even government departments and officials involved in the Sangai Festival.

These materials collectively amount to threatening behaviour, coercion, unlawful attempts to impose bans, incitement of public disorder, and interference with the peaceful conduct of a State-organised festival. The content is clearly intended to cause widespread fear, obstruct lawful government functions, disturb harmony, and intimidate culturally significant groups such as the Sumang Lila Parties.

In view of the seriousness of the matter and the cognizable nature of the offences, a Suo-Motu case under FIR No. 107(12)2025 KCG-PS U/S 351/352/221/353 BNS and section 10/13/16/18/20 UA(P) Act has been registered for investigation.
