Received one zero FIR No. 00-122(11)2025 HLP-PS u/s 380 /427/436/451 IPC from HLP-PS filed by one Mrs. Tinneikim Baite (41) yrs S/o - Ngamkholal Baite of Khabam Village, Imphal East, Manipur- 795005A/p Tuibong, Churachandpur stated that On 3 May 2023, at about 7:00 pm, my house located at Khabam Village, Imphal East, Manipur-795005, was attacked by a group of unknown Meetei persons armed with guns, knives and sticks. The attackers chanted slogans including "Hao hatlo, Kuki hatlo"(meaning "Kill the tribals, kill the Kuki"). They forcibly entered my house, set fire to the premises, looted and destroyed my household belongings, furniture, electronics, and important documents. On the morning of 4 May 2023, at about 8:00 am, I along with my family left the area with the assistance of the Central forces (standing on top of CTS School) and proceeded to Spring Villa. On 5 May 2023, we were conveyed by the Assam Rifles in a bullet-proof vehicle, in a convoy of 20 persons, from Mantripukhri to Kangpokpi. On the 7th day (i.e., 7 May 2023) we reached Kangpokpi. Our previous residence(Anganphou (Agricultural Land) 05-Khabam Village, Heingang Circle, Imphal East) is now abandoned. We are currently residing at, Tuibong, Churachandpur district, Manipur. 3. Nature of offence & consequences: The offences committed include arson, destruction of property, looting/theft, intimidation, and ethnic violence targeted at the tribal/Kuki community, The attack has caused: * My house being burnt and rendered uninhabitable. Loss/destruction/looting of furniture, electronics, documents, other belongings. Displacement of my family, mental trauma, fear of further violence, and disruption of life Because of post-traumatic stress and fear, I was for a considerable time unaware of the process to file an FIR or approach the authorities. 4. Delay in lodging complaint - explanation & request for condonation: I wish to respectfully state that this complaint and request for FIR registration is being made after a delay. The reasons for delay are as follows: The shock and trauma of the house being attacked, burnt and the property destroyed. The displacement from our home, safety uncertainty, and the stress of fleeing under armed escort. Lack of awareness of the proper procedure to file an FIR, and fear of reprisals or further ethnic violence. The delay was not intentional or designed to obstruct justice; it was a consequence of grave circumstances beyond my control. In view of the
