Subject: Report regarding loss of infrastructure and Office Assets of NIELIT Chandel Study Centre.

Respected Sir,

I respectfully submit that the NIELIT Chandel Study Centre/training Centre, D-Block 2nd floor DC Office remained closed from 12/3/2024 till 10/7/2026 due to the community conflict. Recently I visited the centre on 10/7/2026 at around 4:00 pm to reopen and resume training activities, we found that the room previously occupied by our study centre had been occupied by the Court of CJM (Chief Judicial Magistrate) Chandel.

As a result of the prolonged closure and displacement, several office assets and training infrastructures belonging to our centre could not be traced. After conducting a thorough search, we recovered some of the items. However, the following assets are still missing:

- 1) 10 (Ten) Computer table sets
- 2) 3 (three) Sintex
- 3) 2 (Two) Office tables
- 4) 1 (one) Wardrobe
- 5) 1 (one) Laser printer
- 6) 1 (one) Projector
- 7) 5 (five) Benches
- 8) 10 (ten) Desks.

These items are the property of the NIELIT Chandel Study Centre and are essential for conducting computer training programmes. Despite our efforts to locate them, they remain untraceable.

In view of the above, I request you to kindly register an FIR to identify the unknown persons involved in stealing the above mentioned office items and take necessary action and to trace the missing infrastructure and office assets. Your assistance will greatly help us restore the study centre and resume educational activities for the benefit of the local community.

The approximate value of the stolen amount is Rs. 2, 25, 500/- (two lakh twenty five thousand and five hundred).

Yours faithfully,

Sd/-
