12. First Information contents (Attach separate sheet, if necessary):

Today, i.e. 23/09/2026 at about 2:30 pm, information was received that on the same day at about 2:10 pm, around 300 womenfolk of the Thoubal Bazar Committee, led by Smt. Irom Shubasini, aged about 54 years W/o Irom Kunjakishore Singh of Thoubal Ningombam Naorem Leirak, assembled at Thoubal Bazar and staged an agitation demanding the demolition/removal of the road divider and iron railings installed in front of Thoubal Bazar along the National Highway. The agitators stated that the area should be made available for parking by the general public.

During the course of the gathering, some of the womenfolk started attempting to dismantle/demolish the iron railings near the Bazar. The police personnel already deployed at Thoubal Bazar attempted to control the situation and prevent damage to the public property. However, the womenfolk resisted the police intervention and started damaging the iron railings.

On receipt of the information, a police team from Thoubal Police Station, led by Shri Sunanta Singh, Dy. SP, Thoubal, promptly reached the spot and intervened to prevent further damage and maintain law and order.

As the crowd continued to resist the police intervention and attempted to proceed with the demolition of the iron railings, the police team used minimum force to disperse and refrain from damaging public property. When the crowd did not comply with the warnings, the police finally resorted to the use of tear-smoke shells to disperse the crowd and bring the situation under control.

During the incident, 8 (eight) iron railings, each measuring approximately 2 metres in length, were damaged/dismantled.

The situation was subsequently brought under control, and necessary police deployment was maintained at the spot to prevent any further untoward incident.
